Bishop Michael F. Olson Grateful for Supreme Court DACA Decision

June 18, 2020

I am grateful for today's decision by the U.S. Supreme court that prevents the termination of the Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) program. As I have said in solidarity and communion with my brother bishops united with the Holy See, to deport people who came to our country as children and who no longer speak the language or understand the culture of where they were born would be cruel and unjust. It is time for Congress to act responsibly in a bi-partisan manner to work with the President on comprehensive immigration reform to protect families vulnerable to separation, to maintain firm borders for national security, and to provide for the peaceful flourishing for the economic and common good of our society.
